MCKAY HOCHMAN ANNOUNCES §403(b) PLAN DOCUMENTS

403(b) documents available through online document creation system.

ALBANY, NY, <<April 7, 2008>> — McKay Hochman Co., Inc., one of the nation's most respected names in employee benefits consulting, has announced the latest offering in their online document creation system – updated 403(b) Plan Documents. The ERISA and non-ERISA documents are in full compliance with the IRS's final 403(b) regulations.

“The new 403(b) regulations take effect January 1, 2009, leaving providers with the opportunity to provide a valuable service to their nonprofit clients,” said Martha Kirwin, McKay Hochman's Director of Document Compliance. “Providers will benefit by generating a reliable 403(b) plan document through McKay Hochman's online document creation system, the 401kPortal™. The documents are comprehensive and the system is easy to use,” she added.

Whether the plan sponsor wishes to make a safe harbor non-elective employer contribution or exclude a certain classification from receiving an employer contribution, McKay Hochman documents can provide these provisions. The best part is that, whether you have one or 1,000 clients, McKay Hochman offers a solution to any of your 403(b)
